

Colosseum
Was built

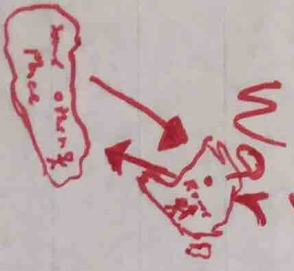

Roman Empire

Stronger Army

Cultural Diffusion

The fall of Rome

Trade

- Reason why
- Government was corrupted
- Lead poisoning

Domes

Silk Road

- Invasions
- Weak army

The rise of Christianity

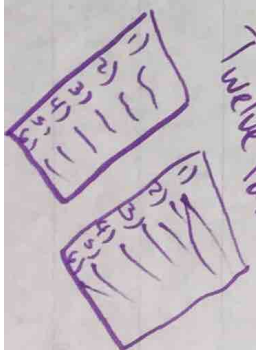

Had Emperors in charge

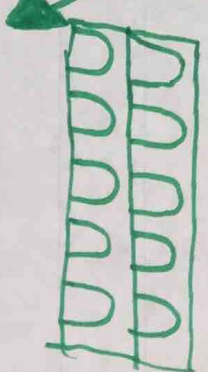

Divided

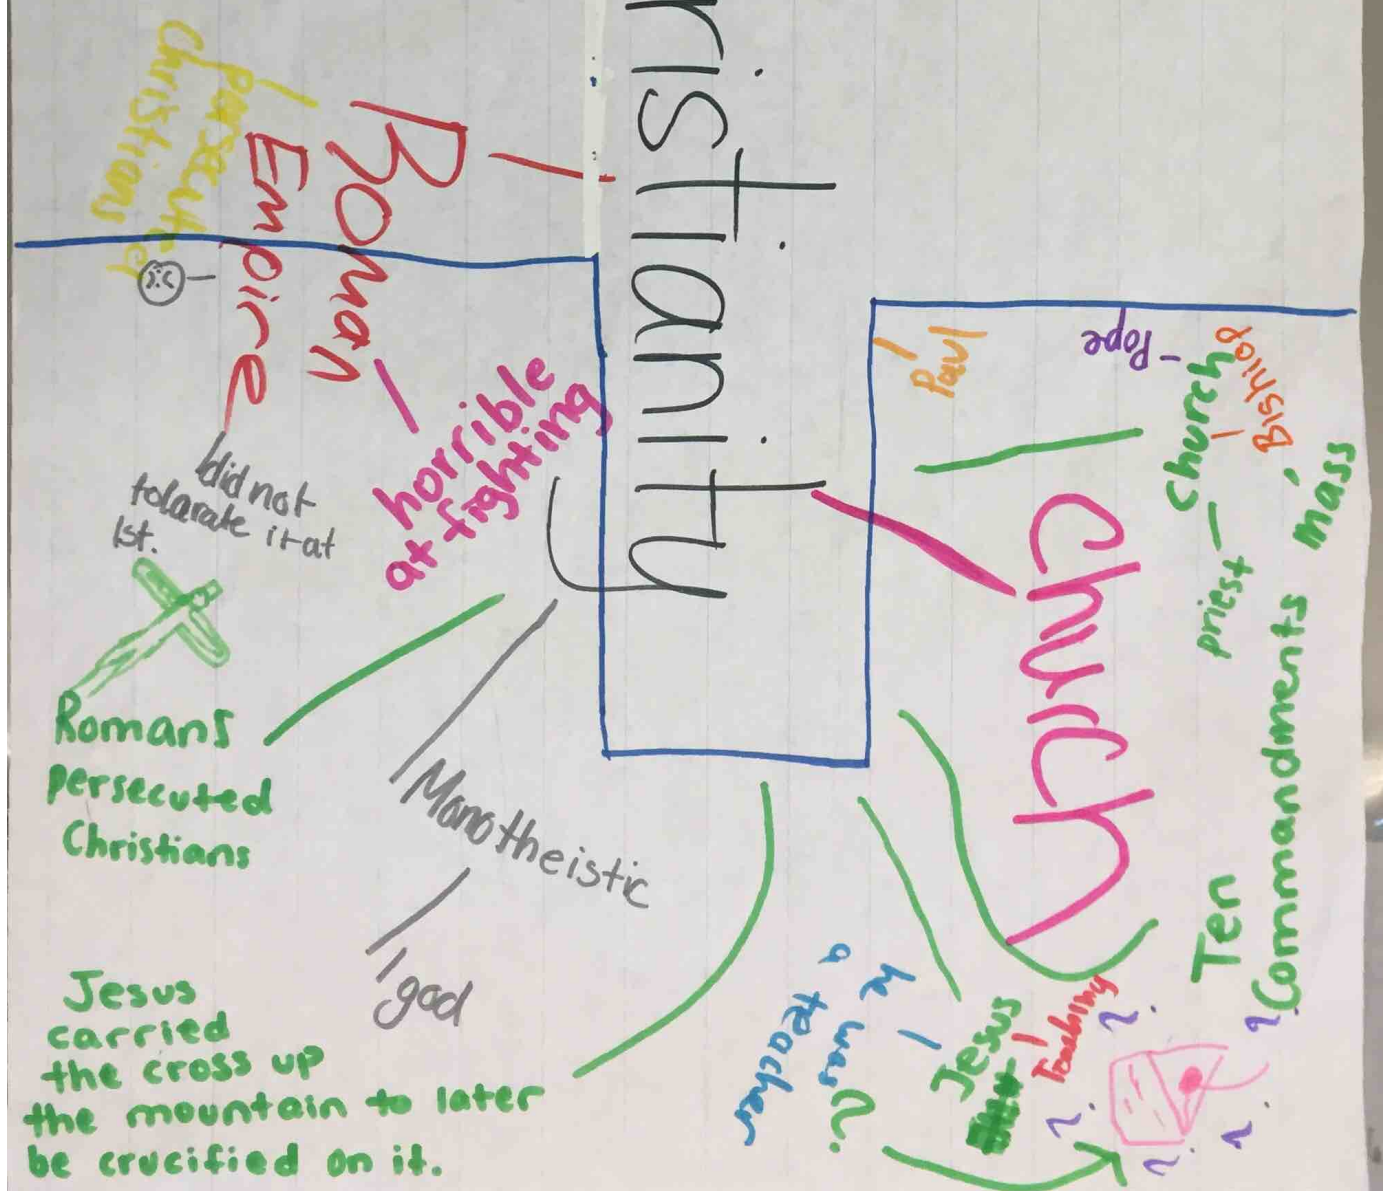

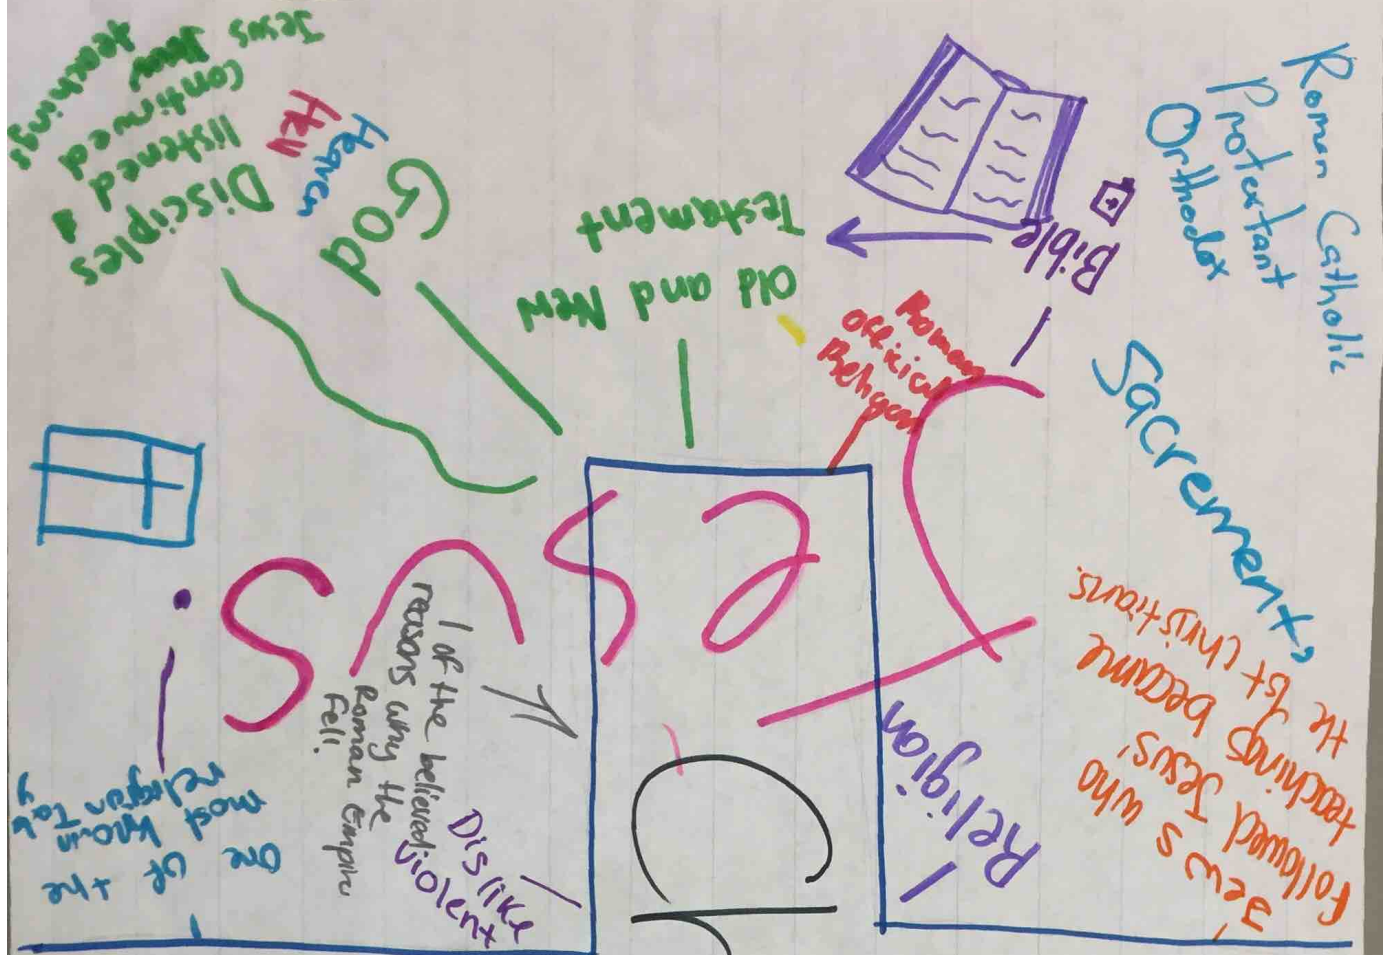

Twelve Tables

Aqueducts built

Christianity

Greece

Polytheism
(many gods)

Greek Mythology

Zeus

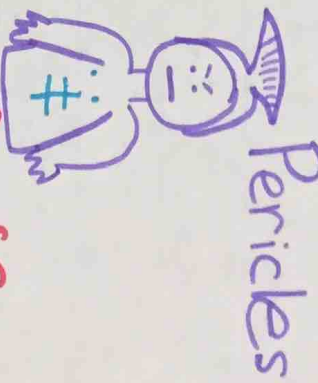

Peloponnesian War

war between Athens
Sparta

Athens

direct democracy

Pericles

Golden Age of Greece
"Age of Pericles"

- Architecture
- Sculptures
- Theater
- Philosophy

Sparta
Military

Oligarchy

Sparta
Military

Trade

Rome

Mountains

Persian War

City-States

War

China created silk

Exchange of goods

Trade

Perfume
Silk
wool
goods

Spread of Buddhism and other beliefs

Asia & Europe

Silk Road

Europe
Jewelry
dishware

Cultural diffusion
Chinese art
pottery

Asia:
Silk
Spices

Passed through continents like Africa, Asia and Europe.

Supplies carried by animals

Danger

Bandit

Connected
China + Roman Empire

Golden Age

Music
Lyre

Science
New ideas

Comedy
- Tragedies

Jobs

Cement & Concrete
used for Roads

Time of Peace

Great Achievements

Education

Greece & Rome

Math
 x^2
+

Tragedies

New Tech

- Arches
- Pillars

lots of Money

School

Literature

- plays
- fairy tales

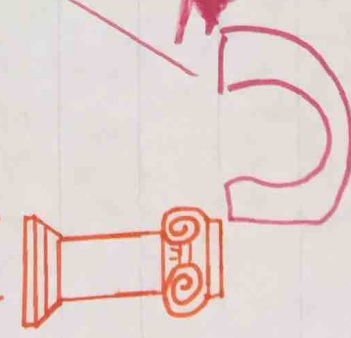

Trade

Silk Road

Religion
(Christianity)

Art

Art
- sculptures
- paintings

Alexander the Great

He RESPECTED his people. (Military orders)

Hellenistic Period

qual of the Great

Alexandria
Largest library during his time conquered Egypt, Persia, India, and central Asia.

King Phillip's son

he united Eurasia from Greece to India

a lot of food

conquered a lot of land - ruler really great

conquered half the world of the world

wasn't so great!

Built cities

Connected the Egyptian, Persian and Indian, + Greek cultures.

Surplus

had culture Deficits

power

Hey